

As a former student of Broadcasting, a proud American citizen and an educator, I'm writing to express
strongly my opposition to the Sinclair
Broadcasting Corporation.

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the 2004
election is a clear
example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the airwaves
in a way that
presents politically
biased stories,
unsupported by fact,
and presents them as
"news", then the
public suffers from censorship of the kind reminiscent of
communism as practiced by the former Soviet Union.

Broadcasting DOES
NOT serve my community, rather it
greatly disservices
me, my community and my nation. FCC, I invite you to reflect upon these issues and take action to prevent Sinclair and other Media conglomerates
from consolidating any further. Thank you.
